PRAUDS—A TALK WITH W. P. SHEARMAN.

As the July term of the Court of General Sessions is usually only two weeks long, it was expected that the Grand Jury would be dismissed yesterday by Judge Gildersleeve. The jury had at one time purposed to adjourn without investigating, as Mr. Campbell had desired, the affairs of the Controller's office. Some of the members of the Grand Jury were, however, desirous that some action should be taken in reference te an examination into the Carroll trauds. A series of resolutions was accordingly offered yesterday and adopted by the jury. The resolutions are as follows:

Whereas, This Grand Jury have been directed by the Court to inquire into the alleged frauds in the Controller's office of this city; aud.

Whereas, in the opinion of this Grand Jury no sufficients or exhaustive examination into the said alleged frauds should be conducted by parties absolutely impartial and not in any way connected with the City Government or any part or branch thereof, and under the supervision of such authority as is vected in a Grand Jury; therefore,

Resolved, That the foreman of this Grand Jury be reguested to ask the Boards of Directors of the Importers and Traders', the Park, and the Fourth National Banks of this city to each designate one expert bookkeeper (three in all), skilled in accounts, whose duty it shall be to inquire and search into the alleged frauds in the Controller's office; also to examine the methods of keeping the books and accounts of the and office; also to recommend any change which they may deem proper to be made for the better protection of the public interest in the system and methods now existing in the Controller's office, and report the same to this Grand Jury or its successors.

Resolved, That when this Grand Jury adjourns it willsored, That when this Grand Jury adjourns it will

e snly of carrying out the investigation into the Con-when the foreman, Sylvester W. Comstock, reported to Judge Gildersleeve yesterday the passage of the resolutions the Judge said that he would not adjourn the court for the term, but would take a recess until August 3. The jurors would thus have two weeks in which to make any examination that they saw fit. He approved the spirit of the resolutions. He afterward told some of the jurors privately that while there was ne doubt of the right of the Grand Jury to investigate any of the public effices to see whether a crime had been committed, there was no fund for the payment of the expenses of hiring experts. One of the jurors effered to advance $500 if necessary for the purpose, and it was said that the Grand Jurors, many of whom are wealthy men, would pay all the necessary expenses. Mr. Comstock will soon call the jurors tegether to fix a time for beginning the luvestigation.

WORK OF THE DEPARTMENT CLERKS.

The Finance Department has five clerks engaged in examining the frauds of Carroll. They are going over the ground covered by the former symmination, and will also go back of 1879, where the former examination, and will also go back of 1879, where the former examination began. It has been supposed that the first frands of Carroll were committed in July, 1879. There is reason to suppose now that they may go back to 1876, but not to any large amount. Controller Green on August 18, 1875, issued an order that thereafter all interest coupons should be paid by warrant, as other payments were made, and through the Anditor's Department instead of directly by the City Chamberlain, as had been done for many years. There was some delay in agreeing upon a system of payment, and the Chamberlain continued to pay the coupons until June 3, 1876. Up to that date everything is accounted for, and the examinations of the force employed by the Controller and those of the Commissioners of Accounts will not go further back. Warrants for interest coupons have been found drawn to the order of Hagen & Billing in November, 1876, but for a small amount. Not until 1877 were any warrants drawn to the order of E. Morrison, ir. After that warrants drawn to the order of these firms are not infrequent, but almost invariably for small amounts. The firms were those with which Carroll transacted the most of his business. The compons have not been compared with the schedule payments for 1876, 1877, and 1878, and up to July, 1879, where the examinations aiready made began. But it is feared that nearly all of the warrants drawn to the order of the two firms muntioned represent conpons sold to them by Carroll, and which had, of course, been paid when presented by the original holders. Until these examinations are complete the exact loss to the city cannot be known.

An EXHAUSTIVE INVESTIGATION DESTRABLE. WORK OF THE DEPARTMENT CLERKS.

"Bo you not think, in view of the damage in assertions which have been made concerning the Finance Department, that an examination should be made of all the books and accounts that would be so complete that nothing could be covered up?"

"As a Commissioner of Accounts, of course, I have nothing to say. But speaking as a citizen, I have nothing to say. But speaking as a citizen, I think it would be the proper thing to do. The fact that Carroli's defalcations were continued for so long a time undetected has given the community an uneasy feeling concerning the Finance Department. A thorough examination would show the exact condition of things."

"Have you found anything new in the Carroli frams?"

"We have found that Hagen & Billing and E. Morrison, ir., received warrants for interest coupons in 1876, 1877, 1878, and that portion of 1879 not covered by the original report. We have not been able as yet to compare these schedules with the coupons, but as they were Carroll's brokers, we take it for granted that the warrants represent coupons sold to them by Carroll. Then there are some other firms who we fear received coupons from Carroll. The figures originally named as representing Carroll's orface to coupons well do onsiderably."

"We have seen nothing that would lead us to be-theory ?"

"We have seen nothing that would lead us to be-lieve that counterfeit coupons were used or were in evistence."

Controller Campbell's health is so much impaired that his friends will endeavor to prevail upon him to take a rest for a considerable time. He has suffered much of late from usomnia. His brother, Dr. John Campbell, is with him and strongly advises him to take the much-needed rest. A sen voyage has been urged as the best thing. His friends' counsels will probably prevail and it is very likely that the Controller will leave the city for a brief time to-day or to-morrow. Whether he will take a trip across the ocean is a matter for future consideration.

A LOST PURSE CAUSES TROUBLE.

A well-dressed woman entered the Eighth Precinct Police Station yesterday morning and said that she had dropped her pocket-book containing $4$ through the grating at No. 199 Woester-st., and saked for assistance in recovering it. Officer Kelly, who was sent with her, found the house securely locked and deserted. In the area, twelve feet below, the purse could be seen through the iron bars of the grating. The woman was unwilling to go away without her property, and she insisted that the officer should force an entrance to the house. The officer explained that he had no authority to use force, and advised the woman to depart quietly. This she refused to do, growing so excited that a crowd gathered. She was finally taken to the station-house, where her excitement seemed to increase. She said her name was Fanny Lariel, but refused all further information concerning herself. She was taken to the Jefferson Market Police Court and held for examination by Justice Patterson. A LOST PURSE CAUSES TROUBLE.

FIRING FIVE SHOTS TO NO PURPOSE.

About a month ago Edward Murphy, who lives at No. 426 East Eighty-sixth-st., was committed for four months in default of bail, for leating his wife. He managed to escape from the Yorkville Police Court, however, and nothing more was beard of him until yesterday, when his wife reported that he had attempted to shoot her. Officers Shultz and Ferguson, of the Twenty-third Precinct, went to Murphy's house to arrest him. He lives on the top floor, and the policemen, on reaching the foot of the last flight of stairs leading to his apartments, saw him standing at the head of the stairs with a revolver in his hand. He at once opened fire on them, firing five shots in rapid succession before the officers could draw their weapons. When Officer Shultz opened fire Murphy's annumition was exhausted and be surrendered. No one was injured except Murphy, whose head was cut, probably by a blow from a club. In the Harlem Police Court Murphy was held for trial in $1,500. FIRING FIVE SHOTS TO NO PURPOSE.

PRESENTATION TO AN ALDERMAN.

PRESENTATION TO AN ALDERMAN.

At last an Alderman has acquired an enviable distinction—he has been appreciated by his constituents. The electors of the Thirteenth District having followed with a natural interest the efforts of Patrick Farley, who represents them and a liquor store at No. 412 Grand-st., in the Board of Aldermin, to simplify the temperance question, they have arisen in their might and with one accord presented him with a gold watch and chain. The present was a surprise. Mr. Farley said so. When his nearest political relatives assembled without his door last night, and heaped the blushing honors fast upon him, he said the watch "knocked him out," although time had not been called. Then he retailated upon his friends by tapping innumerable kegs of beer until the politicians created a gale by a continuous "blowing off the froth." Speeches were made by Peter Jobes, Nicholas J. Kearney and William Jones in the early part of the evening; then Deputy-Warden Kiernan, of Ludlow Street Jail, was persuaded to sing "Should Auld Acquaintance be Forgot," until the query was answered by a unanimous negative. The beer and speeches continued until midnight,

MR. OBYRNE ACCUSED.

SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST AN OFFICIAL. HOW ONE OF MR. MCKEON'S ASSISTANTS IS SAID TO HAVE ABUSED HIS POWERS.

To have abused his powers.

An exciting little scene took place in the District-Attorney's office yesterday between Charles C. Spoerry, of No. 7 Sixth-ave., and Assistant District-Attorney O'Byrne. Mr. Spoerry indignantly accused Mr. O'Byrne of attempting to use the machinery of the District-Attorney's office for personal ends, and to serve one of Mr. O'Byrne's clients, the notorious Eliza Parret, alias "the French Madame," who keeps a disreputable house in West Thirty-first-st. A scandal was created some time ago because Mr. O'Byrne went before the Excise Board on different occasions to secure a license for "the French Madame's" place of business. In this effort he was successful. Recently the Society for the Prevention of Crime has been trying to secure the indictment of this notorious woman, and a good deal of resistance has been offered in the District-Attorney's office. This is said to be due to Mr. O'Byrne. Now Mr. Spoerry and his friends accuse the Assistant District Attorney of again using his official power to aid the schemes of Eliza Parret. Mr. Spoerry gives the following account of the affair:

"Fliza Parret owned some property at No. 51

trial, which Mr. O'Byrne promised to give me. Six times since last December I have gone with my counsel and witnesses to the General Sessions Court on the promise that the case would be tried. On each occasion Mr. O'Byrne has had it postponed on one pretext or another, to my great annovance and cost. The last time we were here we protested so vehemently that Mr. O'Byrne said that he would have the indictment dismissed without trial. This is the last day of the term and I went to court by agreement at 11 o'clock to have the case dismissed. Mr. O'Byrne sent for me to come to his private room, and when I went there be presented to me a stipulation to sign, to the effect that on consideration of his dismissing the indictment I would

"Dod you sign the stipulation?"

"Certainly not. It is an outrageous prosecution and I propose to hold her responsible. The inductment was an outrage on justice, and could only have been secured by collusion in the District-Attorney's effice. I have been for months demanding a trial, and am refused my rights, and now Mr. O'Byrne comes in as counsel for that notorious woman to prevent me from prosecuting her. My counsel, Mr. Shafer, advised me not to sign the stipulation. I want to know in what way I am to have redress if the District-Attorney can keep me from having a trial?"

William Pitt Shearman, one of the Commissioners of Accounts said, vesterday: "It will be several weeks before our examination of the Carroll frands is finished. We have seven men at work and the is finished. ## THE HALF-HOLIDAY MOVEMENT.

THE HALF-HOLIDAY MOVEMENT.

The question of giving the laborers employed in the various departments of the city government a half-holiday on Saturdays from June 15 to September 15 is not yet settled. The Department of Public Works employs a larger number of men than any other department for about seven months of the year. Deputy Commissioner Hamin, who is acting as the head of the Department during Commissioner Thompson's lilness, said vesterday that he was not willing to take the responsibility of granting the proposed half-holiday with pay. The men were working eight bours a day, and this at present constituted a day's work. Less than this number of hours would not be a day. He proposed to receive legal advice before acting in the matter. He had informed the foremen that the men under them could take the half-holiday to-day if they chose, but it would be with the understanding that the lost time might be deducted from thisr pay.

Acting Mayor Reilly, who introduced the resolution giving the laborers a half-holiday, said that it was folly to assert that the Common Council did not possess the power to grant this recreation to the workingmen employed in the city departments. There had been no question raised when the clerks in the departments were given a half-holiday on Saturdays for the period named. The same raiing should apply to the laborers.

Corporation Counsel Aneirews said that he had not yet examined the law on the subject, and could not render an opinion.

Nearly all the large retail dry goods and fancy goods stores in Broadway and Sixth-ave, will close to-day at 1 o'clock. The Short-Hour League is agriating the subject among the trades, and is meeting with fair success. At the meeting of the League to be held this afterneon an address to the public will be considered calling attention to the work of the League, and asking co-operation in its work.

SEIZURES BY CUSTOM HOUSE OFFICERS.

Special Agent Brackett and several of his officers vesterday made a large seizure of smuggled goods from officers of the ship Paul Revere which recently arrived from Maoila, Philippine Islands. The following articles belonging to the first mate were seized at a clothing-store, No. 7 Hamilton-ave, Brooklyn, where he had taken them: Seven hundred and fifty cigars, twelve panel paintings, one princushion. two pieces of peña bordering, three silk ladies satchels, one peña lace handkerchief, eighty-three yards of peña cloth and two peña morning gowns. On the pter were seized the following articles belonging to the third mate: One silk tidy, twenty yards poña cloth and 1,350 cigars. The following articles were seized on board of the ship: One thousand five hundrod cigars, forty yards of white peña cloth. The first and third mates are liable to fines of $400. The vessel was fined $186 for smuggling on her last trip. SEIZURES BY CUSTOM HOUSE OFFICERS.

EXAGGERATED STORIES OF A ROBBERY.

A sneak thief on Tuesday entered the house of John N. Scholes, superintendent of Stearns & Co.'s silk factory at No. 213 East Forty-second-st, who lives at No. 134 East Forty-seventh-st., and stole $500 in cash and jewelry worth about $1,100. The sergeant at the Fifty-first Street Police Station said yesterday that the robbery occurred while all the family were at home, and that it took place at about 1 p.m. The case was reported to the police half an hour later by Mr. Scholes, who was not certain then how much had been stolen, and only knew that property had been taken from the house. Itwas not until 11 p. m. that an estimate of the loss was made. Mr. Scholes declined to say anything of the robbery yesterday, but added: "The report of the matter given in The Sua to-day is a let of lies. There was no such amount as $2,000 or $3,000 stolen, and the account throughout is wide of the truth. There were several newspaper men after me, but I refused to give any information to any of them, as the matter was in the hauds EXAGGERATED STORIES OF A ROBBERY.

Fitzler, the burglar who was shot last Monday morning in an altercation with Policemen Donovan and Reynolds at Fourteenth and Grove sts. Jersey City, died in the Charity Hospital at 2:20 s. n. yesterday. He remained monoscious all through Thursday night and up to a short time before his death. Officer Caleb C. June, who has been watching him, noticed an unfavorable change about ten minutes after 2 o'clock and summoned Warden Osborne and the house surgeon. They spoke to the dying man but he was almost too weak to answer. Shortly before he died the burglar informed Warden Osborne that his right name was Fritz Uch, and that he belonged to a respectable family he Germany. County Physician Converse made an antopsy of the body, assisted by Drs. Bird, Gray and Meaus, and then gave a permit for burial, deciding that an inquest was not necessary. An undertaker sent over by Mr. Gohl, the boarding-house keeper at No. 937 Second-ave, took the body to New-York.

CONDITION OF STEINHART AND HIS WIFE.

Joseph Steinhart, the nuncteen-year old young man, of No. 442 West Thirty-lifth-st., who shot his wife Mary, sixteen years old on Thursday night, in Thirty-fourth-st. between Eighth and Ninth aves, lay in Roosevelt Hospital yesterday in a critical condition. The bullet from his revolver had entered his head through the right ear, and although he was conscious and talked freely, the surgeon was apprehensive that inflammation would set in, which would probably prove fatal. The surgeon was unable to find the ball. His wife who was wounded in the neck, near the left jugular vein, was thought to be in no danger. The bullet was extracted, and she was said to be doing well. Steinhart expressed repentance for his rash act, declared that he would lead a better life, and said that he would be willing to take his wife back if he recovered.

Steinhart has for two years been employed as a messeager boy at the Firth Avenue riotel. He was discharged on Tuesday. Head Porter Lovejoy, of the hotel, said yesterday: "Steinhart was unfaithful in line work, and I would have discharged him before, had it not been for his father, who has been baker hore for twenty-one years. However, the boy has been tardy so much of late that on Tuesday I discharged him. He ought fine to have been marriage, and his wire was only fifteen. The priest who united them was shamefully at fault. Steinhart was employed at Caswell & Hazard's drug store before he came here." CONDITION OF STEINHART AND HIS WIFE.

CHARGEH WITH ASSAULT ON A PRISONER.

James Williams, a laborer, of No. 45 Hamiltonst., was at the Essex Market Police Court, before Justice Kilbreth, yesterday norung, charged by Officer Timothy Ryan, of the Seventh Precinct, with being drunk and disorderly at Hamilton and Catherine sts, the same night. When he came to court his left arm was wrapped up in bandages, and there was an incised wound over his eye. He made a counter charge of assault and battery against the officer, and the complaint against him was dismissed. He was instructed to procure witnesses to corroborate his complaint, and he returned in the afternoon accompanied by his witnesses. Williams said that his arm had been broken for some days, but after being conducted to the station house Ryan struck him with his club several times, knocked him down and kicked him over the eye with a thick-soled boot. Nettie Williams, wife of the complainant, said that when she spoke to Ryan about it he struck her on the arm with his club and threatened to arrest her. George Smith, of No. 45 Hamilton-st., gave evidence to a similar effect. Sergeant Crowley stated that when Williams was brought to the station house he was under the influence of drink and used vile and abusive language, also that he had a large kuife with the blade open. Doorman Bradly Hall testified that it required his own and Officer Ryan's efforts to put Williams in his cell, and that he did not notice the wound over the eye until the following morning. Justice Kilbreth said that he would require bail in $300 for trial in General Sessions, and he paroled Rean till to-day.

An explosion took place at 4 o'clock yesterday afterseon at the paint store of Norwood & Co. in Main-st., Paterson, N. J. James D. Dunkerly, a junior pariner, accompanied by Jacob Vanderbeek and Waiter Scott, two of the employes of the firm, went to the back of the store and down through atrap door into a small cellar to tap a barrel of kerosene. Dunkerly held a lamp while Scott tapped the barrel, when, almost simultaneously, the lamp and the barrel exploded. Vanderbeek escaped unburt, but hearing a cry for help he ran back and dragged Dunkerly out. The poor fellow was terribly burned about the head, face and arms. He was assisted across the street to a drug store in a dazed condition, muttering, "get Scott out." In the excitement no attention was paid to him, and Scott was forgotten. The store caught fire, but several engines arrived and speedily put out the flames, with only small loss. A search then revealed the body of Scott in the little cellar charred beyond recognition. He was a lad of seventeen, who had been employed in the store only three months. He lived at No. 300 Allison-st., and had just graduated from a business college. Dunkerly's injuries were severs, but he has a good chance of recovery. Vanderbeek had his arms badly burned and his hair singed. Issae Shannon, who stood at the trap door when the explosion took place, was also slightly burned. KILLED BY AN EXPLOSION OF KEROSENE.

ANGRY WORDS IN A POLICE TRIAL ROOM.

Angry words, which nearly resulted in blows, were interchanged in the Police trial room in the Municipal Building in Brooklyn, yesterday, in the progress of the cases of some liquor sellers charged with violating the excise law, between E. P. Ide, a temperance advocate, and Louis Froelich, a representative of several liquor dealers' associations. While the former was cross-questioning a liquor seiler, Froelich took occasion to denounce temperance fanatics, spies and perjurers. At this Ide walked up to him and said angrily: "I don't want you to call me a perjurer." Froelich replied: "You are no gentleman." When Ide repeated his demand, Froelich said: "II I call you a perjurer, it's all right." At this Ide gave Froelich a push, and if the policeman present had not interfered they would have come to blows. As it was they were induced to go away quietly. ANGRY WORDS IN A POLICE TRIAL ROOM.

Boyer was first taken to Police Headquarters, where he was photographed. He appeared at ease and unconcerned. He told the Coroner that Simpson had been following him about for a year with threats to kill him, and that he took Simpson's life in self-defence. Boyer had very little money and the police had to give him his meals at the Leonard Street Station. When Captain Eakins asked him where he had been hiding since the night of the murder, the prisoner answered only with a knowing smile.

William H. Sinclair and Samuel B. Hallday, the defaulting clerks, who recently pleaded guilty in the Court of General Sessions, were seutenced yeaterday by Judge Gildersleeve to imprisoment in the Elmira Reformatory. Sinclair was a bookkeeper and Halinday a salesman for the firm of Lang, Robinson & Co. at No. 3 South-st. They were intimate friends and boarded together. They went to Havana last April, taking with them several thousand collars worth of the firm's money. They took assumed names, but were discovered by detectives and brought back to this country. Each of them is about twenty-three years old.

A CONCERT AT THE BATTERY.

about twenty-three years old.

A CONCERT AT THE BATTERY.

For an hour last evening the wind and the waves, the rain and the thunder, had the Battery Park all to themselves and the quartet rendered a sounding symphony. The clouds, however, cleared away, the electric lamps sparkled and the seats around the band stand were soon packed with people. Joyce's band is not so popular as Crook's, which gave the concerts last summer, but after the first two or three selections inst night the audience was enthusiastic enough. The crowd was large but orderly and good natured. The only complaint heard was of the absence of a programme.

THE INGRATITUDE OF A PEDLER.

In the Tomics Police Court yesterday George J. Conking, a pedier, was charged with larceny. On Thursday night he was permitted by Oscar Remach, a cigar dealer, at No. 156 Chatham-st., to pass the night in the store. Mr. Remach was awakened early in the moraing by a policeman, who found the door unlocked. A search revealed the fact that Conkling was missing, as were also fifteen meer-schaum pipes, six eigar-holders and some money, all of the value of $40. The ungrateful fellow had evidently secured the articles and let himself out. The prisoner was committed for trial.

CHARGED WITH SELLING LOTTERY TICKETS. CHARGED WITH SELLING LOTTERY TICKETS.
Six Cubans, against whom warrants had been procured by Anthony Comstock, were arrested yesterday for selling Royal Havana Lottery tickets. The prisoners were Joseph Hertog, of No. 35 White-hall-st., Charles Jackson and Antonio Dias, of No. 16 William-st., Richard Tailhier, of No. 1 South William-st., and Edward Ester and Frederico Pina, of No. 105 Maiden-lane. They were taken to the Tombs Police Court, where Hertog and Jackson were required to furnish $500 bail each. The others demanded examinations and gave bail in the sum of $1,000 each for their appearance at the hearing on July 19.

hearing on July 19.

RETAINING MONEY SENT TO A SICK MAN.

Max Hinrichson, a bookkeeper employed by Theodore Tiedemann & Bros, dealers in woodlens, at
No. 35 Wooster-st., was accused in the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday of retaining $22 given him to deliver to Christian Semarson, a foreman in the employ of the firm, who is lying sick at his home, No. 432 East Seventeeuth-st. Mr. Tiedemann said that Hinrichson had before retained a similar sum, which was given to him for the same purpose. The accused man said he had used the money to pay his debts. He was held for trial.

money to pay his debts. He was held for trial.

ANOTHER CHARGE AGAINST THE CUBAN SWINDLER.

Before Justice Smith in the Tombs Police Court yesterday. William Penalvert, who is charged with swindling Spanish and Cuban morchants, was rearraigned. A complaint charging him with false pretences was made by Edward Komp, a merchant at No. 68 William-st. Mr. Kemp said that the prisoner, on October 5, 1882, represented himself as an attaché of the Spanish Consulate in this city, and obtained $5 on his statement that it was to be deveted toward returning a destitute woman to her home in Spain. Penalvert, who pleaded not guity, said that he was an engineer. He was held for examination.

amination.

Charles Henderson, an ex-convict, whose picture m the Rogues' Gallery is numbered 1,213, in the Tombs Police Court yesterday was charged with lateeny from the person by H. A. Stebbins, an agent of the American Tract Society. Mr. Stebbins, while passing through a crowd at Broadway and Fultonst. on Thursday afternoon was relieved of his watch and chais worth $40. He did not become aware of his loss until he reached the Cortlands Street Pelice.

Station, where he found the property and the thief. The latter had been arrested by Officer Attken, of the Broadway Squad, who was informed of the crime by a gentleman who had witnessed it. Justice Smith held the thief for trial in the General Intestines.

THIS justly celebrated DIETETIC PREPARATION is, in composition, principally the GLUTEN derived, by chemical process, from VERY SUPERIOR growths of wheat, and presented with the assurance that it is unquestionably the scrist, most nicely prepared and reliable medicinal food that scientific research can yield. It has acquired the reputation of being an aliment the stemach seldom if ever rejects, CONDITION NOT EXCEPTED, and while it would be difficult to conceive of anything in food more delicious, or more soothing and nourishing as an aliment for INVALIDS and for the growth and protection of CHILDREN, its rare medicinal excellence in INANITION, due to MAL-ASSIMILATION, CHRONIC, GASTRIC and INTESTINAL DISEASES, has been incentestably proven; often in instances of consultation over patients whose digestive organs were reduced to such a low and sensitive condition that the GRANUS was the only thing the stomach would tolerate, when life scened depending on its retention.
